My first message will be the hardest message of all.

This first message will be truly hard and difficult to carry out. Jesus, in his teachings, said that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will in no way enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

I'll speak openly, because I'm sure I'm not talking to children.

At least for this month of September:

- Fast from meat
- Fast from sex (I mean, all types of touching or sexual activity)
- Kneel on the floor every day
- Singing praise is a form of prayer

I've been in this process for a month now, and I intend to continue for the next 60 days. You have the intelligence and cognition to investigate whether or not these instructions truly affect your physiological, psychological, and spiritual body. Okay?

A thought that always haunts me:

"To hit the center of the target, don't aim for the edges of the board."

"THE GOAL IS EXCELLENCE."

And you might ask, and it's a fair question:

- WHAT IF NOTHING HAPPENS?

Jesus invites us to have an experience of LIFE.

The experience we will have, one day, in heaven.

An experience of Holiness!

We will, in a way, be training to live in heaven with Holiness.

Is it really that terrible?

What is PRAISE?

I, like many people, also couldn't understand what it was exactly.

With maturity, we learn a lot, right?

You know that super intelligent, kind friend?

When you meet them, you go up to them to greet them because you naturally admire them.

Praise is exactly that. Only 1,000,000 times more. (laughs)

So, you realize that you are a small part of who HE IS.

The Life of Jesus Between 12 and 30 Years of Age

At the age of 12, Jesus' parents, by mutual agreement, asked their friend and merchant, Joseph of Arimathea, if Jesus could accompany him on his upcoming travels.

Joseph of Arimathea, already impressed by the wisdom of the young Jesus, accepted.

During these years, Jesus traveled through India, then Tibet, where he stayed for seven years, and then England and other countries along the way.

Jesus, with a genius never before seen, learned in just a few months the language and the teachings of the religions and philosophies of the respective countries he visited.

He was always warmly welcomed wherever he went.

In Tibet, where he received his initiation, the Master Monks, before Jesus, covered their faces before the glory of his face.

Upon his return to Judea, Jesus thanked the Father for having been born among the Jews. For it was from there that the salvation of humanity would come. And he himself would be the Christ, the one who would provide such a Colossal and Terrible Sacrifice for all humanity.

Paying for the sins on the cross of all who believe in Him.

The Parable of the Wheelbarrow

A famous tightrope walker decided to perform a feat in a distinguished district of his country.

A 200-meter-long steel cable was strung between two buildings.

With his pole in hand, the people below, about 16 stories up, shouted:

"Go, we trust you. You can do it!"

So, the skilled tightrope walker not only crossed, but also went back and forth.

The second time, he would try without the balancing pole.

And the people below continued to shout the same thing.

With the agility of a cat, he performed the same feat.

The third time, he proposed that he would go with a wheelbarrow, balancing the wheel on the cold steel cable.

There was silence this time.

For minutes, no one dared.

Until one of the people, almost no one saw him, shouted at the top of his lungs:

"Go, go quickly!"

I believe in you. You can do it!"

With a smile on his face, like the smile of someone who has already won a battle, he sweetly replied:

"Come. If you believe, get in the cart. And let's go together."

(Sorry, I got emotional writing this parable)

This parable shows us the relationship that exists between us and our Almighty God, on our journey through life.

Reflect!

The Cultural Prison

I did some research, but unfortunately I couldn't find Mother Teresa of Calcutta's written words.

It explains the idea that it is precisely the various cultures that hinder humanity.

For example, deep in the Amazon, in the forests, there are people who, in their marital relationships, practice sex solely for reproduction.

This is repeated among various peoples and small cultures.

Some tribes, married couples, don't kiss on the mouth, only hug and affectionate caresses. According to them, the mouth was made for eating. (laughs)

I'll give you an irrefutable example.

When you're in traffic, in a car, in the city. You might think:

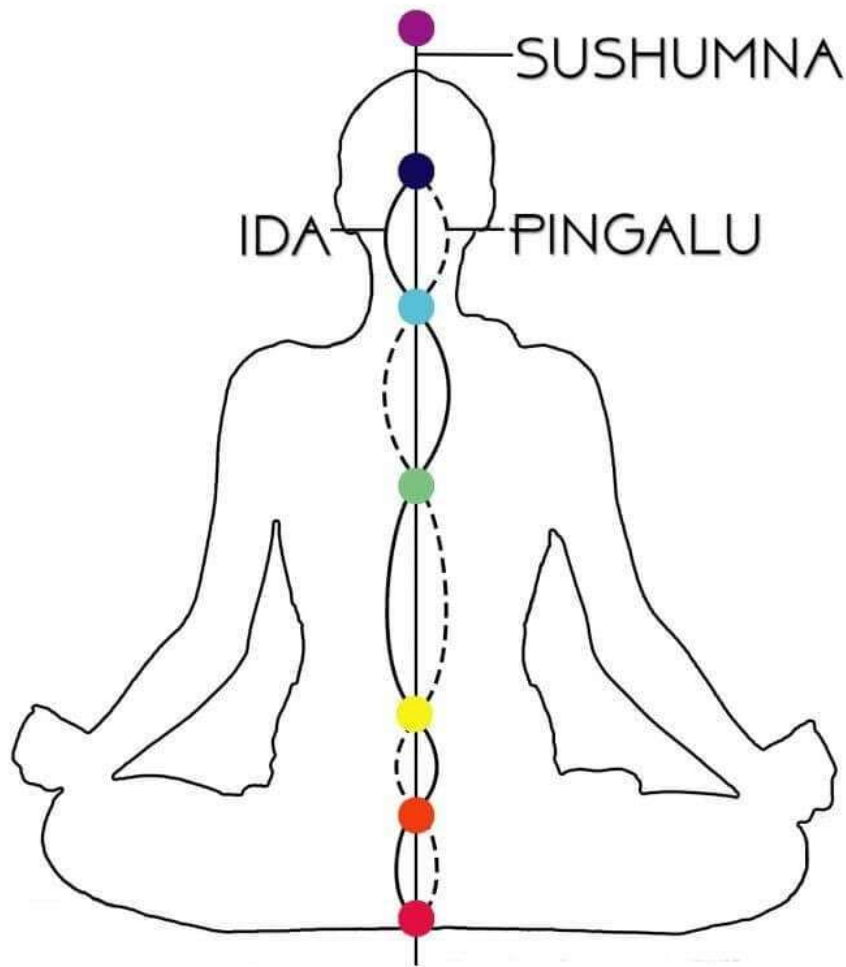

"I'm going to speed at 100 km/h. I think that's okay.

You'll get a nice, fat FINE."

That's how the rules are with our Eternal God. He knows and decides what's best.

That is why the novelty of Salvation through Jesus Christ (EVANGELIZATION) is so important.

How the 7 Chakras Work

The entire physiology of yoga is based on the existence of an energy body, which in turn contains nadis and chakras.

Energy (prana) flows through the body through the thousands of nadis, which can be compared in some ways to the meridians of Chinese medicine.

All nadis end in the spine, which is the energy channel par excellence. Here, energy flows through the three main nadis: ida, pingala, and sushumna.

Chakras are located in the spine and are centers where energy is stored and redistributed.

On a physical level, chakras correspond to nerve ganglia, where there is a high degree of nervous activity, and glands of the endocrine system.

As mentioned previously, chakras are also called "padma," lotus, because their symbol is lotus flowers.

Like flowers, they have petals that can be open, closed, or in between. Chakras govern not only physical aspects, but also emotional and behavioral ones.

When a chakra is unbalanced, it negatively affects a person's life.

If a chakra is closed or blocked, it is unable to receive and retransmit energy; while if it is too open, it functions excessively.

It should also be considered that chakras do not function as separate entities, but are all connected; in fact, an imbalance in one chakra will likely affect the others as well.

I'll simplify abruptly.

The first three chakras, from bottom to top, are energy points that can be seen by clairvoyants. This means they really exist, it's not just a theory.

These first three chakras represent the lower or animal part of humanity.

It's the barbecue, unbridled sex, nightclubs, daily crowds, negative thoughts. Understand?

Look, I tell you:

- Those who do not evolve and overcome the "flesh" will not be able to experience and activate the Crown Chakra.

Understand that in the Bible we also need to have our CROWN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS. 2 Timothy 4:8

I'll stop here.

You can do a lot of research on the internet.

If you research enough, you will gain knowledge of Kundalini.

My best friend's wedding party.

Everyone's been there.

When we go to that wedding. Expected. Of a dear family member. Or a great friend, who even invited you to be a best man, such friendship and consideration.

You'll definitely wear your best outfit, those shiny shoes, a clean shave, gelled hair, and the best and most expensive perfume.

Do you agree?

This is how it should be for the Wedding of the Lamb.

Plainly: for the wedding feast of Jesus Christ and his Bride.

The long-awaited feast in heaven.

The Bride is the Church, with people fully prepared, without a blemish.

White wedding linen dresses and a lamp filled with abundant oil.
And personally defeat the BEAST.

Revelation 15:2

"I saw something like a sea of glass, mingled with fire, and those who had overcome the beast and his image and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of God..."

Get ready!

Happy Holidays!

Last Inspired Message:

On the day of the RAPTURE, when the Church will ascend, the Angels of the Lord have special vision.

They are beings anointed and inspired by God Himself.

They can see if we have the Seal of GOD on our foreheads. Revelation 14:1.

They, these Angels, can also see if we have debts in our energy field.

And the most important thing to know:

It doesn't matter if you learned wrong from someone.

The responsibility is yours and it is individual.

It doesn't matter if your father, mother, spouse, or whoever, caused you harm.

The responsibility is yours and it is individual.

It's you and GOD!

➡ Our GOD is immensely merciful.

Jesus Christ is the LAMB who died on the Cross to pay for all your sins.

One Perfect Sacrifice for all humanity
